NOTEWORTHY ACTIVITIES:

The radar sign spent 10 days on E Madison St and recorded speeds at the 85th %ile as 25 MPH and a Max speed during the period as 42 MPH

Thanks to Officers Strayer and Petrunak for their response to a report of a man with a gun at the Jerome King Playground. On arrival they quickly located an intoxicated male who had been brandishing a rifle at others. He has been charged with multiple counts of assault and other offenses. The rifle was subsequently located by Waynesboro PD K9 and recovered. Once again Thank-you to Waynesboro PD and to the Franklin County Game Commission who responded since they were close by.

Municipal Police Radar has once again come up in the House of Representatives. I have sent letters to several area Legislators and the Chairman of the Appropriations Comm. where the bill is stalled. There was also an excellent video produced by the PA Chiefs of Police Association in support of the bill.
